

Advanced expanded noun phrases

SPaG Fluency and Reasoning Pack

Underline the expanded noun phrase
in the sentence below:

Meeting the Queen is a once-in-a-lifetime
opportunity.

Underline the expanded noun phrase
in the sentence below:

Meeting the Queen is a once-in-a-lifetime
opportunity.

Tick the sentences below that use an expanded noun phrase:

The car parked outside the house. -----

The bad-tempered child stamped her feet. -----

The midnight-black raven perched on the tree. -----

The cat chased the mouse. -----

Tick the sentences below that use an expanded noun phrase:

The car parked outside the house. -----

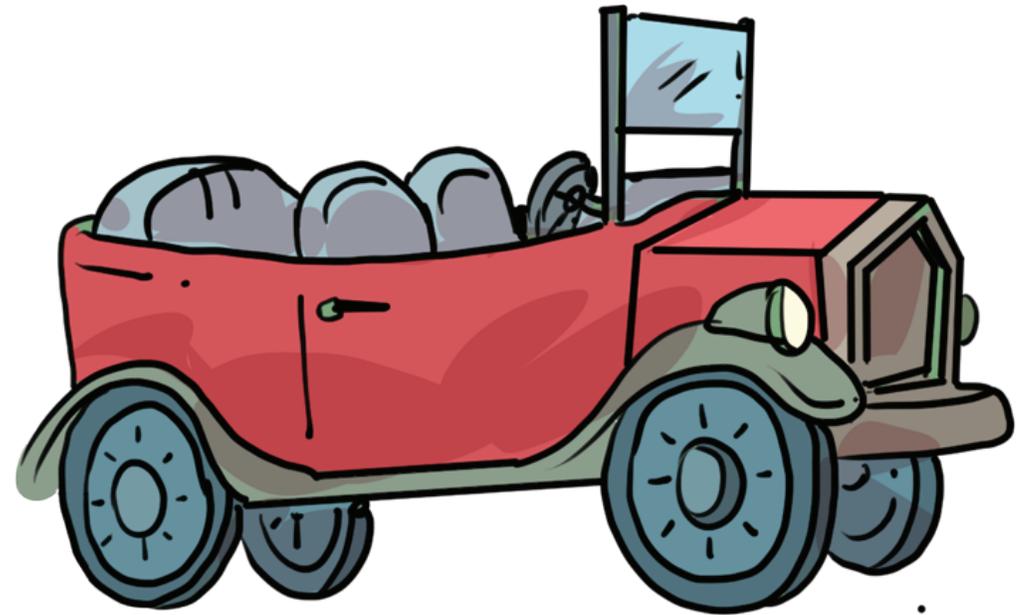

The bad-tempered child stamped her feet. -----

The midnight-black raven perched on the tree. -----

The cat chased the mouse. -----

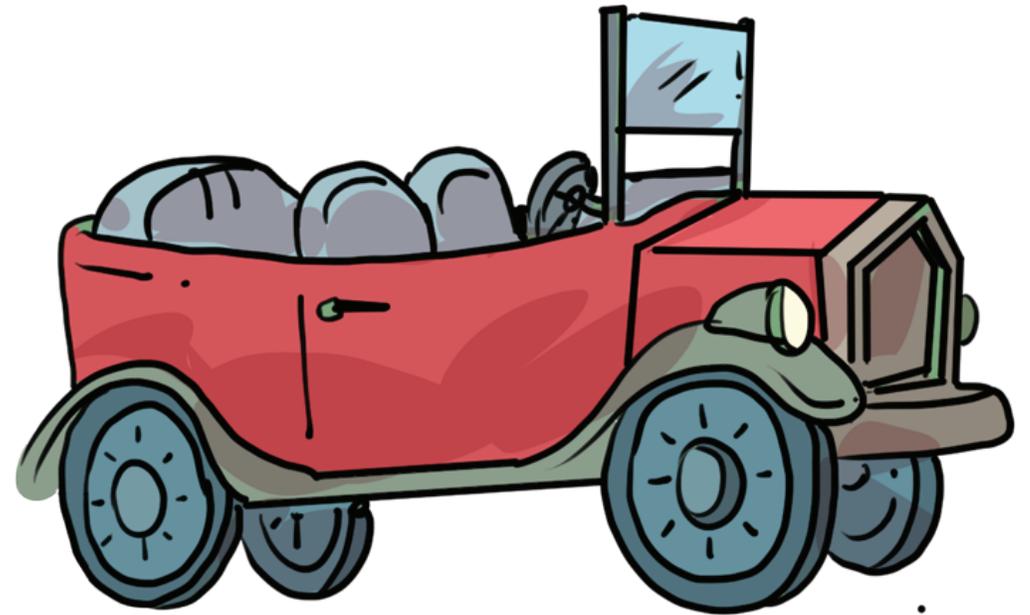

Highlight the entire expanded noun phrase in the sentence below:

He drives an old-fashioned car with a convertible roof.

Highlight the entire expanded noun phrase in the sentence below:

He drives an old-fashioned car with a convertible roof.

Tick the box to label the expanded noun phrase in the sentence.

The film starred many world-famous actors.

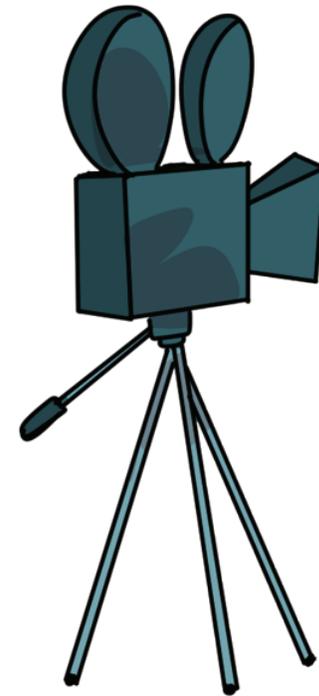

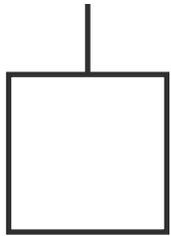

☐

☐

Tick the box to label the expanded noun phrase in the sentence.

The film starred many world-famous actors.

True or false? Explain your answer.

Expanded noun phrases always need 2 adjectives before the noun.

True or false? Explain your answer.

Expanded noun phrases always need 2 adjectives before the noun.

False.

Expanded noun phrases add more detail to the noun by using adjectives or adjectival phrases, which can come before or after the noun.

The large, googly-eyed monster.

The large monster with googly eyes.

Choose the most appropriate option to complete the expanded noun phrase.

well-mannered

wide-eyed

bad-tempered

The _____ children always say please and thank you.

Choose the most appropriate option to complete the expanded noun phrase.

well-mannered

wide-eyed

bad-tempered

The well-mannered children always say please and thank you.

Is Millie correct? Explain your answer.

Lying back, Lyla looked up at the beautiful, star-soaked skies.

I have underlined the expanded noun phrase in the sentence correctly.

Is Millie correct? Explain your answer.

Lying back, Lyla looked up at the beautiful, star-soaked skies.

I have underlined the expanded noun phrase in the sentence correctly.

Millie is incorrect as she hasn't included the entire expanded noun phrase. She needs to include 'the' and 'beautiful' too.

